

Dr. GEORGIA CHEIRCHANTERI,

Assistant Professor at University of West Attica, Greece
Architect Engineer AUTH, PhD NTUA, MSc NTUA

Born in Athens, Greece. She has graduated from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki, Greece, Faculty of Architecture-Engineers, and from the Technological Educational Institute of Athens, Greece, Department of Graphic Design.

She carried out postgraduate studies and researches, specialized in Visual Communication and has obtained a PhD in industrial Archaeology, both from the National Technological University of Athens (NTUA), School of Architecture. From 2017, is a candidate Post – doc researcher at NTUA, School of Architecture, as well.

She is a writer of three academic books and many scientific articles and worked as an Adjunct Lecturer and Laboratory Assistant in the Technological Educational Institute of Athens. Now she works as an Assistant Professor at University of West Attica, Faculty of Industrial Design Product Engineering, School of Engineering.

Also, from 2021, is a member in Design and Development of Innovative Knitted Textiles and Garments- DIKNIGA, laboratory at University of West Attica, Faculty of Industrial Design Product Engineering, School of Engineering.

She has been, also, working as a freelance architect-engineer in the preparation of various architectural projects and constructions, industrial buildings' reuse, etc, in Greece and abroad, as well as a freelance graphic designer in many graphic projects.